In this firsthand account by a historic leader of the Cuban Revolution, we meet men and women who led the urban underground in the fight against the brutal U.S.-backed tyranny in the 1950s, together with their comrades in arms in the rebel army. They not only overthrew the dictatorship; their revolutionary actions and example worldwide changed the history of the 20th century and the century to come. Biographical sketches of major political figures during the 1950s, as well as photographs, are important additions to the text. Recommended choice: narrated by someone who not only participated in the founding of the revolutionary movement that came to power in 1959 but also formed part of the leadership of that revolutionary movement. Contains more than one hundred pages of important documents, other first-person accounts, and photographs. Provides scholars of Cuba a wealth of information with which to stimulate further research; will also be of value for students and the general public interested in contemporary Latin America. Hispanic American Historical Review. A historical display with vivid commentary to provide an insider's explanation. Counterpoise. Prefaces by Mary Alice Waters, Eliades Acosta Matos, and Roberto Fernández Retamar. 28-page photo section. Documents, maps, epilogue, chronological notes, glossary, index.
